

To Kill A Swan

Burning Brides

One swing to bring down all your enemies, to kill a swan you can live in the past but let me tell you that I I'm moving on
Now you tried and tried and then you tried again
It did no good Now you know that a cross ain't nothing more than just a piece of wood

You finally found yourself right along for the ride
And you're saving it all for the first time

You're lost you're found stuck in the turnaround, stuck in the mud
I didn't know where I'm going but I know I got a , a taste for blood
Now you lied and lied and then you lied again , it did no good
Now there's nothing to save you from the chopping block, of Hollywood

You finally found yourself right along for the ride
And you're saving it all for the first time

Yeah you're saving it all for the first time

Let's go to where we ain't supposed to go and stay a while I'll see you at the crime before I see you at the, the fucking trial
Now you died and died and then you died again , it did
no good
Do you think that I'm crazy or do you think that I misunderstood

You finally found yourself right along for the ride
And you're saving it all for the first time
