

Trust

Burning Spear

Don't trust that man,
That man could lose his trust
So many people have lost
Their trust in Jah

Jah know, Jah know, Jah know,
Jah know- that man could be any man.

When you talk about trust,
You've got to be careful,
For trust most times,
Cause a lot of fuss.

Jah know, Jah know, Jah know-
That man could be any man.

Sometimes we got to look way
Back in life
And Try to remember the good
Times we had,
Without no fight
Things have changed, Things have changed,
Things have changed.

Don't trust that man,
That man could lose his trust
So many people have lost
Their trust in Jah

Jah know, Jah know, Jah know,
Jah know- that man could be any man.

Sometimes, we should give it a try again
That nice time we usually have
Without no fight

Jah know, Jah know, Jah know,
Jah know- that man could be any man.

You can't blame no one
People want to be safe and
Taken care of, when you talk
About Trust

Jah know, Jah know, Jah know,
Jah know- that man could be any man.

Sometimes, you will hear some
People say,
"Trust me, I can get the work done"

Don't trust that man,
That man could lose his trust
So many people have lost
Their trust in Jah

Jah know, Jah know, Jah know,

Jah know- that man could be any man.

Friendship and promise can
Cause a lot of disturbances

Jah know, Jah know, Jah know, Jah know

Don't trust that man,
That man could loose his trust
