

Mexican Divorce

Burt Bacharach

Down below El Paso lies Juárez -
Mexico is different, like the travel folder says!
Cross the Rio Grande and you will find
An old adobe house, where you leave your past behind!

One day married, next day free -
Broken hearts for you and me -
Takes no time at all to get
A Mexican divorce!

As I came home to this empty house last night
Looked at all the windows and I couldn't find one light!
I found you on this road to Mexico
And now, my love, I'm pleading: Please, oh please, don't go!

One day married, next day free -
Broken hearts for you and me -
Takes no time at all to get
A Mexican divorce!

Finding love takes so long -
Walking out must be wrong -
It's a sin for you to get
A Mexican divorce!

One day married, next day free -
Broken hearts for you and me -
Takes no time at all to get
A Mexican divorce!

One day married, next day free -
Broken hearts for you and me -
Takes no time at all to get
A Mexican divorce!

One day married . . .
