

Meanin' So Much

Burton Cummings

Oh sweet, sweet, sweet lovin' babe, how'd I ever let you go Miss you more as the years go rollin' by
And I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know

You lied when I looked you straight in the eye

But oh, you're meanin' so much

Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now

Oh, meanin' so much to me

Ask me how well, how well that I remember nights in September

Lying holdin' each other's lovin' charms

And I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know

w

I found you in someone else's arms

But oh, you're meanin' so much

Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now

Oh, meanin' so much to me

I know it's useless, I know it's impossible, I've tried

Can't seem to drink you out of my mind

No sense in lookin', no sense in comin' crawlin' on back

Knowing what it is that I'd find, what I'd find

Oh, night comes falling bringing darkness again

Bringing teardrops to another lonely man

But I might still be near you, if not for one small thing I know

w

When you loved me you would love me and then you ran, yes you did now

But oh, you're meanin' so much

Oh lover, meanin' what you're meanin' now

Oh, meanin' so much to me
