Bury Tomorrow

Separate the life you once knew.
Let me take you back years ago;
You never knew what I could do!
We're running out of time.

I am the fucking viper!
The very venom that stings your tongue!
I am the very demon...
You're not the man you thought you knew.

We went alone into the world unknown.
It wasn't until later on that my true face was shown.
I asked you for your soul, then corrupted all that was so beautiful.
I asked you for your soul, then corrupted all that was so beautiful.

You're alive, but your barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.
You're alive, but your barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.
You're alive, but your barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.
You're alive, but your barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your... sin.

Exorcise me!
Oh, the demon... the demon, it has me!

Always looking for a new horizon,
Nothing ever seems to satisfy me.
I'm the new kind of monster.
I am the curse, the catalyst, and your disease.

I'm spreading the lies.
You need to sever the ties.
I'm spreading the lies.
You need to sever the ties.

You're alive, but you're barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.
You're alive, but you're barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.
You're alive, but you're barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.
You're alive, but you're barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your...

The betrayal, betrayal we were living in!
Nothing could prepare you for that life of sin.
You're alive, but you're barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.
You're alive, but you're barely living.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.
You were my saviour, I was your sin.

We went alone, into the world unknown.
We went alone, into the world unknown.
