

Watcher

Bury Tomorrow

I am forever the watcher,
Oath Sworn protector,
Foretold your Saviour,

I won't abandon you,
I cannot lose you,
I won't throw this hope away,
the hope you once knew,

I pray this sickness never ends.
I will not leave you, to suffer at the hands of sin.
If I were silenced, your name, I would still speak it.

There isn't a moment that you will leave my eyes as you become faint in person you're stronger in my mind,
So, Fight the demon inside,

Let go, let others take control, the poison will drain and the possession will lose its hold,

And I will never abandon you,
I cannot ever lose you
