

Dangerous Love

Bush

Everything is beautiful
And nothing hurt
The night was warm and long
You fell into my arms
I wanted you forever
I wanted you to stay
As soon as you're here
I watch you walk away

Everything is beautiful
And nothing hurt
I was young at first
And a future wasn't there
But time moves fast
And I'm just trying to stay here
You know my love
Most just disappear

It's a dangerous love
The heart is more than treacherous
Oohohh
It's a dangerous love
The heart is more than treacherous
Oohohh
It's dangerous
It's dangerous

Everything is beautiful
And nothing hurts
Yes you did betray me
Back to earth
I washed all the sadness
In a medicated rain
Soon we will be friends
Till we hurt each other again

It's a dangerous love
The heart is more than treacherous
Oohohh
It's a dangerous love
The heart is more than treacherous
Oohohh
It's dangerous

Not been myself lately
Lost in a world of maybe
These are the mysteries
That bring you right back to me
It's alright love
It's alright love
It's alright
You'll see

Everything is beautiful

Oohohh
It's a dangerous love
Oohohh

Dangerous, dangerous, dangerous
So dangerous
