

Ray of Light

Bush

There's a dreamscape, this is my scape
I was miles away, you're so far from me
It's a crime babe, Your fingers and thumbs
Speak in tongues, your language
You're a wild one, but you love like candy

If I can be a ray of light for you
If I could help to pull you through
If I can be a ray of light for you
If I could help to pull you through

See you disappear, on a blood moon
The orchestra surrounded you
With your pale eyes and your lipstick face
Never made it clear, when you fade away
And you kiss me, and you love like candy
Love like candy

If I can be a ray of light for you
If I could help to pull you through
If I can be a ray of light for you
If I could help to pull you through

We hurt the most as she said her last goodbye
Words to the tune of a tragic lullaby
It's a crime, babe, your fingers and thumbs
Speak in tongues, your language
You're a wild one, but you love like candy

If I can be a ray of light for you
If I could help to pull you through
If I can be a ray of light for you
If I could help you, if i could help you
Ray of light
Ray of light
Ray of light
To help you
To help you
