

Night Driver

Busted

Systematic gone wrong
There's a part of me that knew it would.
And I don't want it to take me over.
But there's something's telling me it should.
I'm a soul man.
And there's a fire burning deep within.
And I don't want it to take me over.
But it just won't let me be and it's calling out to me.

You're a night driver,
And the road belongs to you.
Can you feel it
When you're riding around in the dark,
With nothing but you and the beat of your heart,
Would you believe it
You better believe it, Annie.
You're a night driver, yeah oh.

Hydromatic, so long,
I remember when you said to me
We'd live forever, how could you baby,
Make a promise that you couldn't keep.
I'm a soul man, yeah
And there's a fire burning deep within.
And I don't want it to take me over.
But it just won't let me be and it's calling out to me.

You're a night driver.
And the road belongs to you.
Can you feel it
When you're riding around in the dark,
With nothing but you and the beat of your heart,
Would you believe it
You better believe it, Annie.
You're a night driver, yeah oh.

Midnight driver
Can you feel it

You're a night driver.
And the road belongs to you.
Can you feel it
When you're riding around in the dark,
With nothing but you and the beat of your heart,
Would you believe it
You better believe it, Annie.
You're a night driver, yeah oh.
