

The Taste Of Red

Butch Walker

Well I tripped and I fell
Into a hole I know so well
And I donâ??t think I'll be
Leaving for awhile
And this lump beneath my skin
Is the home I let you in
All it took was just your
Red lipped biting smile

And damn damn damn I love you
Like the stars that shine above you
Light the ground that your laying on
While looking up at me
And oh good God I need this
Just a chance to see your weakness
So I can come inside of your kiss
And leave you on your knees

Slurring thoughts til they bled
Cause I love the taste of red
And youâ??re stuck inside me
Like a splinter does
Drawing words on your back
Spelling youâ??re my heart attack
Cause your naked body glistens like the sun

And damn damn damn I love you
Like the stars that shine above you
Light the ground that your laying on
While looking up at me
And oh good god I need this
Just a chance to show your weakness
So I can come inside of your kiss and just Leave you on your knees
