Don't Point, Don't Scare It

Butterfly Boucher

We hide behind the hills We walk through tunnelled fields And no-one sees us holding hands

Love Don't point Don't scare it Oh Love Don't point don't scare it

We sneak into the trees We hide beneath the leaves And nobody will find us here Oh we dance across the lake We laugh into the wind And nobody will find us out

Love Don't point Don't scare it Oh Love Don't point Don't scare it...Please!

We creep along the lanes We sneak through seven gates We pass a flock of birds Who didn't flinch a feather This cliff will keep us safe We hide beneath it's walls Alone again it's It's time to kiss

Love Don't point Don't scare it Oh Love Don't point Don't scare it Love...oh love Oooh love, don't point Don't scare it
