

I Wanted To Be The Sun

Butterfly Boucher

It's in my bones, it's in my blood
And I don't wanna hurt anymore
I don't wanna lose another night to the dawn
Weeks and weeks, I just don't sleep

Oh, and I don't wanna hurt anymore
I don't wanna, I don't wanna hurt anymore
You're someone else

The visions are coming back
The way that we faded black
Yeah I, I wanted to be the one
I wanted to be the sun
On your skin, in the morning

It's in my bones, it's in my blood
And I don't wanna hurt anymore
If all the hope in all the world could never be sure
I'll find myself

The visions are coming back
The way that we faded black
Yeah I, I wanted to be the one
I wanted to be the sun
On your skin, in the morning

It's in my bones, it's in my blood
The aching of the deep, deep love
And oh, the visions are coming back
The way that we faded black
Yeah I, I wanted to be the one
I wanted to be the sun
On your skin, in the morning

I wanted to be the one
I wanted to be the sun
I wanted to be the one
