Butthole Surfers

Hello perry
you think you're so fucking scary well, I've got news for you

hello perry
hello ??

this is the news for you, perry and it's not so fucking scary here it is:

it's talking about you it's talking about growing up in england it's talking about being the slave boy it's talking about giving head when you're 6 years old it's talking about doing these things the coming apart of you the coming apart of your faith and meeting the popping cherry of the brain and the part of passing it around to the other boys and then once you know it...

i think it's all too fucking scary well, I've got news for you, perry do you...hey!
i really care, perry about your money your mother died of cancer Cancer, cancer, cancer, cancer, cancer, cancer, cancer, cancer, cancer

See, perry
i can be there ??

it's about coming of age it's about learning how to do it it's about learning how to experience things the way they ought to be experienced it's about growing up it's about licking the shit off the floor it's about doing the things that you ought to do it's about being a butthole surfer it's about doing promotional work it's about it's about PR
it's about all these things it's about loving yourself it's about loving your mom it's about loving your dad it's about doing the things it's about going to the go-kart track it's about loving everything your pop, your kitty all the things the catfood, the little bits of crayons the melted pieces

the loving friends all the things you wish you had
