

Sneaky

Buzzcocks

I sense your indecision
You won't make up your mind
You're in the dark no light to guide each turn
It matters what I say and what I do
And truth's the light to guide you through
Adversity's the lesson we must learn

Oh sneaky sneaky
Will you ever have the time

I'm with you in my dreaming
I just want you to stay
Don't take away my very heart and soul
There's no real need to say goodbye
Because you are the reason why
And staying on the path's the only goal

Oh sneaky sneaky
You never have the time to give all your attention to me
Oh sneaky sneaky
Will you ever have the time

I sense your indecision
You won't make up your mind
You're in the dark no light to guide each turn
It matters what I say and what I do
And truth's the light to guide you through
Adversity's the lesson we must learn

Oh sneaky sneaky
You never have the time to give all your attention to me
Oh sneaky sneaky
Will you ever have the time
Oh sneaky sneaky
You never have the time to give all your attention to me
Oh sneaky sneaky
Will you ever have the time
Oh sneaky sneaky
