

Under The Sun

Buzzcocks

I never meant to drive you away
I really want you to stay
I feel you're being unkind
When you say I'm a waste of time
But I can't get you out of my mind

Been the same since long ago
Give and take takes two you know
Only goes to show there's nothing new under the sun

And when I feel on a roll
You open up my soul
Is it or isn't it me
Was I so blind that I just couldn't see
I'm tired of this ambiguity

Been the same since long ago
Give and take takes two you know
Only goes to show there's nothing new under the sun
All uphill feelings low
Such a little so and so
Only goes to show there's nothing new under the sun

Why on earth can I never win
Why has fate such a mocking grin
Is it or isn't it me
Was I so blind that I just couldn't see
I'm tired of this ambiguity

Why on earth can I never win
Why has fate such a mocking grin
I feel you're being unkind
When you say I'm a waste of time
But I can't get you out of my mind

Been the same since long ago
Give and take takes two you know
Only goes to show there's nothing new under the sun
All uphill feelings low
Such a little so and so
Only goes to show there's nothing new under the sun
Only goes to show there's nothing new under the sun
New under the sun
