Montmartre

On the Montmartre Along Place du Tertre The little old cafés to please you Sitting there and smile, or to rest for a while Watching the young folks, who're passing you by

Artists and painters Along Place du Tertre They'll make you a mem'ry for ever Don't even move your hands Just to give him a chance The picture he's painting, will really be French

We love you Montmartre Even by darkness, a painters delight We come to see you, year after year, by day, by night

We love you Montmartre Even by darkness, a painters delight We come to see you, year after year, by day, by night Even by storm and by rain We hope we'll see you again

High on that mountain Along Place du Tertre Where deep in the night life is easy Where they say, when you go home "Au revoir et bon voyage" We're sorry to say "Goodbye and so long"

We love you Montmartre Even by darkness, a painters delight We come to see you, year after year, by day, by night

We love you Montmartre Even by darkness, a painters delight We come to see you, year after year, by day, by night Even by storm and by rain We hope we'll see you again