

Rockin' The Trolls

BZN

It was a Scottish sailorman, who sure was right as rain
He'd like to tell you stories in a most peculiar way
With lowered voice and rolling eyes, the smell of booze
And beer
'Beware my kids' he said, 'because the trolls will soon
Be here'

'With crystal balls and magic bells, they're rulers of
The night
So draw your swords and raise it high, 'cause now the
Time is right'
And then he'd say: 'Think of me nice' and to me
Surprise
The Scottish sailor, he moved into the night

And while we all were waiting, cheeria cheeria
The sailor was taken, 'till the day was breaking
He's rockin' the trolls tonight

And while we all were waiting, cheeria cheeria
The sailor was taken, 'till the day was breaking
He's rockin' the trolls tonight

'They seemed to come from everywhere, in search of Everyone
You're going to be the prisoner and you're not the only
One'
'I've seen it with my very eyes', the sailor said
Before
'Maybe a hundred thousand trolls or maybe even more'

With crystal balls and magic bells, they're rulers of
The night
So draw your swords and raise it high, 'cause now the
Time is right
And then he'd say: 'Think of me nice' and to me
Surprise
The Scottish sailor, he moved into the night

And while we all were waiting, cheeria cheeria
The sailor was taken, 'till the day was breaking
He's rockin' the trolls tonight

And while we all were waiting, cheeria cheeria
The sailor was taken, 'till the day was breaking
He's rockin' the trolls tonight

With crystal balls and magic bells, they're rulers of
The night
So draw your swords and raise it high, 'cause now the
Time is right
And then he'd say: 'Think of me nice' and to me
Surprise
The Scottish sailor, he moved into the night

And while we all were waiting, cheeria cheeria
The sailor was taken, 'till the day was breaking

He's rockin' the trolls tonight

And while we all were waiting, cheeria cheera
The sailor was taken, 'till the day was breaking
He's rockin' the trolls tonight
