

The Man In The Wood

BZN

Deep in the dark wood there lives an old man
Beware of him they say
He usely catches all young little girls
And then he flies away

So don't go in there I warn you my friends
Do always beware You 're never to blame

I had a girl-friend, she went in the wood
And never she came back
Nobody saw him and nobody should
Till there was me to search

I found him alone He told me to go
I wouldn't do that Then he went away

Never since then there was somebody else
Who went down in the wood
Nobody dares for the dangerous man
Will catch you if you should

So don't go in there I warn you my friends
Do always beware You 're never to blame
