

Eternal Grace

C-Block

is coming down
to take my pain away
I will stay strong
I will go on to find eternal grace

As I look to the sky
throw my hands up and pray to Jesus to ease us this pain is enough believe us retrieve us man from down in hell as you know it really wasn't meant for us to bail down below
as I look to the sky
with a tear in my eye cause everyday we struggle everyday we die
why are we forgiven for the glamour we gave to thug life and first breath to death trapped in his maze rest in peace to the real Tupac Shakur resurrect like Izzareth come back and bring me more motivation and the real inspiration Yo the elevation of my soul to a high plateau now dear Lord forgive me if we whorah shoot to kill black on black crimes is tearing us apart to real I hope we feel these words and fly
and find eternal grace before we die

I'm praying on my knees for my foes and my enemies
G.O.D. can you please help me?
live is too much pain I'm going insane suicidal thoughts running ramphet through my brain I look into the mirror and what did I see a man trying to be free from inside of me and separate fake game from reality now I know how to come up from down below
live my life on slow keep them drugs out my flow it's my life and I'm taking control the game is complexed for your mind and your health so find eternal grace for yourself
