Running from the police, they never capture me Running from the police, they never capture me Running from the police, they never capture me Running from the motherfking police

The got a warrant on my head, wanna see me dead or alive

Why, catch the news at five
Roundin hundreds, pullin kickdoes, I'm poppin' no does
I can't sleep unless I make it across the border
Mexico, Cancoon, hope I make it soon
On the beach with a freak looking at the moon
And the stars, cause the police cars got me spooked
Everytime I see the boys in blue
I wanna run and get the gun and start bustin' for fun
Hid in trees never waitin' on the outcome (outcome)
Will I ever see the penn or will they ever capture me
I don't know, I'm just running from the police

I'm the nigga thats coming with the gun puttin them shots up, shots up

Smoking dope and running from the police, nigga now watch out, watch out

Uptown niggas to the downtown killas, handle your business, stealing niggas

On my mind, cock it up, straight it bout to scare them niggas

Till they grab me, then the bitch gon' frisk I say 'fk business' and the bitch close this Huh, you roughed me up and that bitch they copped me up You bitches gon' have to straight up fk me up just to shut me up

 $f^{}kin'$ right I got the gun, these niggas ain't playing Smell like weed because I've been smoking weed, what you sayin

Man, so see I can't stand the five O
Always fkin' with somebody, then I'm broke

Taz, taz on my motherfkin' trail and it's hard
Try to hide in the ride when I make it to the northside
Dirty gat in the Lac with the broken tail lights
If they catch me they gon' read me my rights
Sike, many years, many felons, many two elevens
Booquo stores they cause in the motherfkin' murder charge

My rap sheet is kind of long but I'm strong Word is born, it all started when I listened to a rap song

Hella blunts, gettin' blunted, never stunted Now I'm running like a dummy if it's sued in some fast money

I gotta creep cause them motherfkers after me And I'm running from the motherfking police
