

Roy

C.W. McCall

(C.W. McCall, B. Fries, C. Davis)

From the album Wilderness

[C.W. clears his throat.]

Roy. By C.W. McCall.

[The only musical instrument heard is the plucking of a Jew's harp.]

I had an old cat named Roy.

He was a good ol' boy.

He used to go a-huntin', down by the lake,

Catch 'I'm a nice, fresh garter snake.

Bring 'I'm on back and then set in the grass,

Lookin' like he had 'I'm a green mustache.

Yeah, Roy was a good ol' boy.

'Til the dogs got 'im.
