Everything. Devoured. I learn to hold my, will power. Everything. Devoured. I learn to hold my, will power. When it comes, it falls in pieces. Eating holes and gems unbound. Birds and hearts and flags and everything. Said, everything. Devoured. I learn to hold my, will power. Said, everything. Devoured. I learn to hold my, will power. Money matters. Does mercy matter? Suddenly, as things are clearer, See the sights are getting nearer. Said, everything. Devoured. I learn to hold my, will power. Said, everything. Devoured. I learn to hold my, will power. Money matters. Does mercy matter? Suddenly, as things are clearer, See the sights are getting nearer. Said, everything. Devoured. I learn to hold my, will power. Said, everything. Devoured. I said, everything. Devoured. I learn to hold my, will power. When it comes, it falls in pieces. Eating holes and gems unbound. Birds and hearts and flags and bugs. Said, everything. Devoured.
