Here's to him my guardian There he is He moves faster than light His body holds tremendous might His face doth shine ever so bright His enemies tremble with fright Jesus is my superhero Once he died for me I'm his trusting sidekick We will beat the enemy There he is He labors day and night Somehow i'm always in his sight Without a doubt he'll do what's right With any foe he'll win the fight Evil's on it's way But my savior's here to save my day