

High Tide

Cadet

You're a hightide, you keep carrying me away
Leave the sand behind and I wont resist
All ths time you've never lost it
And nor will I
If I tried to hide it from you
My heart would tell the truth
I want you, I know you want me, too
You're a midight, balancing yesterday and tomorrow
The world's outside, but there's no loneliness
I don't feel lonely here
If I tried to hide it from you
Oh, if I tried to keep it from you
Love would break through the foolishness
And it would grant my wish for happiness
If I stood in your arms
