

The Girl

Cadet

while she speaks i search every word hoping that she'll give it away or my heart would have to agree all this could it be a mistake oh tell me she's the girl
cause there's no one like her in this world
tell me she's the girl any day the answer will fall so I'll keep my hands in the air is it true the days we're apart will shine on the days that we share
clocks have no hands whenever love takes my hand
