

I'm Not Afraid Of You

Cady Groves

You think you got a tight grip
Funny thing, you really got a loose lip
And I don't mean to bring the rain on your parade
Hey!
It's called a fall-out for many different reasons
That you know now
And don't you think it's time for you to shut your big mouth,
Before I slap you off your pedestal?
I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No, I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No, you broke my heart
You can try to run away but
I know where you are
So you better get your fists up
I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No
You can call me Little Miss No-name
But I ain't got the time to play your games
And you won't ever find me crawling on your floor anymore
Do you ever think just cause
I'm smaller and I'm weaker than you
Just cause
I loved you once doesn't mean I will suffer.
I'm not going under
I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No, I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No, You broke my heart
You can try to run away but
I know where you are
So you better get your fists up
I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No. I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No
Whoa, you never wanted to let me go
You never wanted to let me in
You can take the promises,
But can you take it like a man?
I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No, I'm not afraid of you, not a-fucking-fraid of you
I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No, I'm not afraid of you, I'm not afraid of you
No, You broke my heart
You can try to run away but
I know where you are
So you better get your fists up
