

Meant To Be

Cady Groves

I was born in a messed up world
Wide-eyed, but a lonely girl
I needed love it was plain to see
But nobody held onto me

I moved around 'til I messed up good
Lost myself like they said I would
Ain't like I want it to be, but nobody held onto me

I spent everyday running away
But all I needed was...

Real deal, real love
The kind that won't give up
When I'm not quite good enough
Big field, your heart
No doors or reasons to run out
I gotta find someone like me
If I don't really want him to leave

I cursed this damn old world
It ain't easy as boy meets girl
Cause I watched him walk away
Doesn't mean it wasn't meant to be

I spent everyday praying he would stay
Swear all I needed was...

Real deal, real love
The kind that won't give up
When I'm not quite good enough
Big field, your heart
No doors or reasons to run out
I gotta find someone like me
If I don't really want him to leave

One time he tried, I loved him so
Can't say he lied, but he let go

Real deal, real love
The kind that won't give up
When I'm not quite good enough
A big field, your heart
No doors or reasons to give up
I gotta find someone like me
If I don't really want him to leave
No, I don't really want him to leave
