

Refrain

Cady Groves

Please refrain-
Cause I can't take your
Your constructive criticism anymore
What the hell have you been building anyways?
between you and me?
Just a barricade
I gotta say

Woah

I can do so much better than this
I know I know
I took the easy road again
And as for selling myself short
I have become notorious
Oh I know how it goes
This is the part where I realize that I'm alone
Alone

You always told me to be mature
Well I just don't know myself anymore
Whats the point of being grown up anyway?
So I can be like you?
And give it all away?
I got to say

I can do so much better than this
I know I know
I took the easy road again
And as for selling myself short
I have become notorious
Oh I know how it goes
This is the part where I realize that I'm alone
Alone

And everybody wants to fall in love
In cinematic fashion
I don't, I don't
And everybody wants to fall in love
In cinematic fashion
I don't, I don't.
And everybody wants to fall in love
In cinematic fashion
I don't, I don't.
