

Right From Wrong

Caesar

When you know
Everything is right
All you have to do
Is bear the light

And you'll see
I know right from wrong
Try to have some faith
And carry on

But it's harder now
You pick me up then bring me down
My torture I need
To make this life complete

Like I said,
I know right from wrong
Not where I belong so carry on
To concentrate on the masterplan
I will not pretend obligations call

But it's harder now
You pick me up then bring me down
My torture indeed
To make this life complete

My torture, your torture, our torture, misfortune
My torture, your torture, our torture, misfortune

Like I said
I know right from wrong
But not
Where I belong
