

Neolithic Man

Caetano Veloso

I'm in the silence that's suddenly heard
After the passing of a car
I'm in the silence that's suddenly heard
After the passing of a car
I'm in the silence that's suddenly heard
After the passing of a car
Spaces grow wide about me
Spaces grow wide about me
If you look from your window at the morning star
You won't see me
You'll only see that you can't see very far
God spoke to me
From inside the newstone one day
You're my son
And my eyes swept the horizon
Away
