

A Void in My Heart

Cain's Dynasty

Sitting in a cold and lonely chair
Waiting for the change that makes me free

Searching for hope in the wind
Lost in a void of lonely pain

Thinking in the things that I once lost
Maybe you will return ohh ohh ohh

How hard is to start again
How hard is to smile today
How hard is to awake everyday
without you...

Walking alone through the time
Sailing under the sad light of the moon

Sometimes we live our golden dreams
But reality is not like fairy tale

Thinking in the things that I once lost
Maybe you will return ohh ohh ohh

How hard is to start again
How hard is to smile today
How hard is to awake everyday
without you...
