

Heart Possession

Calabrese

To rise from my own death,
I was betrayed by your curse.
Look what you've done to me.

"Wait," she said, "I'll be right back."
When the hunger grows deep in your chest,
She'll show me how to feed.

Take my hand, feel in your heart
All I demand, your life is marked.
Vultures perched on burnt out buildings,
The only life I know is changing,
Forever changing.

Inside the heart of a man is
Dark blood, pure and rich and full.
You'll feel what I feel.

Awful, violent burning,
Heart stopping, it's the only way.
Hard motion, blue murder, whoa.

Take my hand, feel in your heart
All I demand, your life is marked.
Vultures perched on burnt out buildings,
The only life I know is changing,
Forever changing.

Take my hand, feel in your heart
All I demand, your life is marked.
Vultures perched on burnt out buildings,
The only life I know is changing,
Forever changing.
