Look how free I am I won't let them catch me All your banal worries are strange to me All your petty interests seem so shallow I don't understand why you'd waste words on this Don't you know That Im free from the problems That plague you Thats why I can't understand them I had a feeling we had a lot in common Now I'm coming to realize How distant we were And I'm not surprised at all I wanted to offer you a sightseeing flight Show you how to relish freedom And give you a piece of my mind Now I'm coming to realize That you are stark blind And your narrow-mindedness Fills you with contentment But I don't feel sorry for you at all
