

He Lays in the Reins

Calexico

One more drink tonight
As your gray stallion rests
Where he lays in the reins
For all of the speed and the strength he gave

One more kiss tonight
From some tall stable girl
She's like grace from the earth
When you're all tuckered out and tame

Nunca pense que jamás
Tener la oportunidad
De reencontrar el camino de nuevo
Para formar un mundo mejor"

One more tired thing
The gray moon on the rise
When your want from the day
Makes you to curse in your sleep at night

One more gift to bring
We may well find you laid
Like your steed in his reins
Tangled too tight and too long to fight
