

A Faint Moment of Fortune

Caliban

Moonlight - a glance of the moon into my blurred eyes - the darkness gives way to the beauty of the evening light and in a faint moment in this sheer endless time of despair and thought everything seems right - but it ain't and my soul drowns in self-pity it's so damn hard to keep one's face to do the right thing moonlight - beautiful moonlight give back my heart to me
