Hillbilly

Call Me No One

Hey – damn if I can't do it with my eyes closed
Damn if I don't steal the game
My mouth spits out a real disaster
There's no luck no gonna save you from my hand tonight
No way – no
Hillbilly – hillbilly

I got one try – one breath – save it to burn the sky
Not one soul left to stand and look me in the eye
Got one life left – and I will ever die
And that's ok – yeah you fucking hillbilly!

Yeah... There's... No place to run and hide when I throw
Someone stomped me half to death
And I keep eating dirt by the pound full
There ain't no way out – I'm riding this until I die
No way home – hillbilly – keep it running

I got one try – one breath – save it to burn down the sky
Not one soul left to stand and look me in the eye
I got one life left and damn if I won't ever die
And that's ok – yeah fucking hillbilly!
