

Tijerina

Calla

I think I'm coming back home
It's safer if I stay close to home

If I could
If I only could

I would give everything
You know I would, if I only could

It's all enough to suffocate me
Irritate and separate me

It's all enough, but not enough for me
It's all enough, but not enough for me
It's all enough, but not enough for me

I'm sorry for the inconvenience
It's only 'cause I'm losing patience
Call me over, Sophia
When it's over, hurry up
