

I'll Take Care Of You

Calvin Richardson

I know you've been hurt by someone else
I can tell by the way you carry yourself
But If you just let me, here's what I'll do
I'll take care of you

I've loved and I've lost.
The same as you
So you see I know
Just what you've been through
But If you would let me, here's what I'll do
I'll take care of you

You won't ever have to worry,
You won't ever have to cry,
For I'll be there besides you
To dry your weeping eyes

So darling tell me
That you'll be true
Cause there's no doubt in my mind
I know what I want to do
And just as sure
As one and one is two
I'll take care of you
I'll take care of you

Whatever you need me to do baby
I'll take care of you
I'll take care of you

If you would let me
I'll take care of you
No need to worry
Baby girl I got it
I'll take care of you
Whatever you need
Whatever you want
I'll take care of you
