

Transients

Camisado

I didn't know
That needy meant
You needed to ruin everything

This is the end of you
Of you and me
And once again we are alone

This is my imagination
At its very worst
Please make way
This is gonna get ugly

Could you say this softly?

Make me bleed
And make me say
Those words you forced me to speak
Make me bleed
And make me scream
"You never meant anything."

This trap this suffocation
It will not hold
That is what you made me believe

You're games are so deceiving
There's no escape is there?
Is there?

Why can't I get you out of my head?
Why can't I get you out of my heart?

Make me bleed
And make me say
Those words you forced me to speak
Make me bleed
And make me scream
"You never meant anything."

I won't be the one
Who's pretending that I'm done
