

Bitter Sweet

Camouflage

Bitter sweet,
I need to know the way you feel,
things have changed,
but all the time I think of you, I'm longing for the things we did,
with nowhere left to go,
the distance's growing further still.

When I see you there
I'm realizing,
all the time we knew,
we're sacrificing,
our love.

Bitter sweet,
I know it's time to face the truth,
we have changed,
but all the time I'll be with you,
we're silent on the things we did,
Intimacy has gone.

When I see you there
I'm realizing,
all the time we knew,
we're sacrificing,
our love.
