

Take a look into my eyes
Do I look like I care if you or I live or die
Or if I wet my filthy cock tonight
And I don't want your reason
So fuck your cheap rebellion
I am your destruction
Take a look into the darkest moments of the night
I will be there beside you to take away your life
There is no place that you are safe
I am your destruction
There is nothing else that I would rather be
Than the truest form of your enemy
Take a look inside yourself and tell me what you see
Its the face of a coward who will never be like me
So fuck your tender feelings
You can't play with my emotions
I am your destruction
There is nothing else that I would rather be
Than the truest form of your enemy
So take one last look at me and tell me what you see
Because the person staring back at you is just what he was made to be
I have no faith in the human race
I am your destruction
