

Shall I walk in darkness
Rise or fall
Im just another motherfucking worm not fit to crawl
But I still I breathe the air in deeply
Dig my heels into the ground
And wait for what is about to come
There is only pain that life has shown
There is no way to let it go
There are no compromises left to die in my soul
Shall I taste the shadow
See the fear in it's eyes
Dig my teeth into it's spine
Yes the storm is rising
And I feel the end that is building up from deep inside
There is no pain that life has shown that is to great for your soul
There is no will to let it go
Only the need to be alone
There is only pain that life has shown
There is no way to let it go
