

I found you lying on the floor
In a puddle of piss an shit and blood
There were cum stains on your face
I wondered if you had died, or perhaps were still alive
Then a sound came so sweet that it almost brought me to my knee s
You started crying
Its fun to be there when your dying, nadia
Crying out my name while you are lying there in pain
With the piss and shit and blood
And the cum stains on your face
There is nothing here
There is nothing there
Just you and death and two arms to share
