There's a lot of really pretty girls that are gonna sleep in graves tonight.

I don't think they'll mind; no, I don't think they'll mind.

There's a lot of really stupid fks that are gonna get in my way tonight,

Or at least they'll try, but I think they'll die.

I grab the baby from its mother's by its ankles, and I take a swing,

Bash its little skull; I need its mom to see.

I often ask myself why I do such awful things,
But then it occurs to me that I was born free.

There's a lot of really pretty girls that are gonna sleep in graves tonight.

I don't think they'll mind; no, I don't think they'll mind.

There's a lot of really stupid $f^{}ks$ that are gonna get in my way tonight,

Or at least they'll try, but I think they'll die.

If I dig a hole for you,
Then to fill it would be the least you could do.
You're so pretty, so motherfking pretty.
You're pretty dead.
