

Remnants

Cancerslug

I remember judgement day
I remember angel screams of pain and I remember things that never go away I remember things of fury and of pain
I remember judgement day
I have only to focus on the pain
I remember sacrifice
I remember dark desire and I remember being cast into the fire burning from the desire to be broken and splintered and torn as under
I have only to focus on my pain
