

Damn

Candice Glover

I know it's her
She's calling, isn't she?
Wanna know where the hell you are
You need to answer it
But you staling
Cause you don't wanna tell her that you're with me
But see that's all I want

You keep me telling me it's gon' be over soon
And then I'll get to be with you
You say in the end it all just be us two
If that were only true, I wouldn't be here singing

Damn
Damn
Damn

I fell in love with someone else's man
And I'm here singing

Damn
Damn
Damn

I fell in love with someone else's man

You keep saying it's complicated
Go ahead explain it to me
Can see along all of you
And no not all
I'm getting real frustrated
But the only person to blame is me
At the end of the day
It's all my fault
You keep try to convince me that you're gonna leave
And like an idiot I always believe
I have to admit you're charming, blinding me
If only I could see I wouldn't be here singing

Damn
Damn
Damn

I fell in love with someone else's man
And I'm here singing

Damn
Damn
Damn

I fell in love with someone else's man

I regret every moment
I've been with you
So I gotta call it off
I thanked God when it's over
I can't believe that I was such a fool

A fool for you
Now I'm here singing

Damn
Damn
Damn

I fell in love with someone else's man
And I'm singing

I fell in love, I fell in love with someone else's man
