

Down to the Last Element

Candiria

I cannot sit back, shed my broken skin curse my pride
I react play yourself again up down and down again
You live in a computer, you're an instant man
Judged and told I can't cut your shallow hands

How can I please all of your needs?
What do you see when you see me?

I can't reach you
Step back, heard your point of view
Stand up, lay down for no one

Take a piece of me with you
Step back, now that I know you
I know, you're down for no one

I bow down to no one, you like the faith
Stand behind me, find your way, you know you will decide
To move on with me or step aside I could have lost my life
And I'm ready to risk it one more time

How can I please all of your needs?
What do you see when you see me?

I can't reach you
Step back, heard your point of view
Stand up, lay down for no one

Take a piece of me with you
Step back, now that I know you
I know, you're down for no one

I can't reach you
Step back, heard your point of view
Stand up, lay down for no one

Take a piece of me
Take a piece of me
Take a piece of me with you
