

Them Eyes

Candlebox

Pour yourself on me, baby come on
Pain me with them smokey eyes
I've been drunk on you for what seems a lifetime
I' hung up on love
I'm surely lost, but I don't even care
Lay your head on me babe
Lay your head on me
My heart a fool to be made aware

And as I lay here by your pillow side
An uncovered lover, I simply can't deny
Until it's over now
Until it's over now
Don't say goodbye, no
Don't say goodbye

I can't remember ever wanting anything more
No memory at all
Just blindly walking through your door
Lay your hands on me babe
Lay your hands on me
My love is true
I'm surely unaware

And as I lay here by your pillow side
An uncovered lover, I simply can't deny
Don't say it's over now
Don' say it's over now
I can't say goodbye, love
I can't say goodbye, no

I'll never love another the way I loved and cared for you
You said, "it's something simple baby"
But I don't know what to do, no
So scared to let you in so I chased you out the door
You caught me smoking baby so I smoked more
You can't believe how much I hurt baby
Did I hurt you?
My jealous heart was poisoned, lover
Did it poison you?

Don't say it's over now,
Don't say it's over now
I'll crumble, lover

Oh, as I lay here tonight passed out on your floor
I can see it all
I can see what you were waiting for
I can see them eyes was wanting love
Calling me to the shore
It's all so clear to me now you are the reward
Ohh

Don't say it's over now, oh

And as I lay here by your pillow side

I see the sun in you, I simply can't deny
You gimme one last try
Don't say it's over now (4x)
