The Time to Kill is Now

Cannibal Corpse

We see them coming a mile away Gathered to kill on the desolate plain No fear in our minds Pure hate in our hearts

Miscalculation of our strength their bane Take us lightly and we'll make you pay Pride left them defenseless No Mercy for Hubris

They rush to fight us and we stand and wait Pulses quicken as they take the bait Mere seconds to the slaughter We can wait no longer

Closing fast with their weapons high Still believing it's we that will die Now the ambush is sprung Now they learn that they were wrong Now the killing will start Tear the bastards apart

They thought it would be easy but now they're being crushed Arrogance of power leaves them dying in their blood
There will be no mercy for these filthy sons of whores
The innards of my enemys impaled upon my sword
Many years we've waited for this final day of slaughter
Our victims are decapitated, their limbs are torn asunder
Careful preparation brought our haughty victims down
Our forces are at full strength and the Time To Kill Is Now.

Time To Kill Is Now

Time To Kill

They are all dead, it's their end today All lost their lives in tremendous pain Not one has survived We Left None Alive

Do not doubt our conviction to kill Hate on our side we will never fail Now the killing will start Tear the bastards apart Strike the enemy down The Time To Kill is Motherfucking Now
