

Drive. Ride. Drive.

Canterbury

Joyride, bloodshot eyes and clouded mind
A new disguise, blurred minds, bright lights burning through the night

I took a drive it's safe to say I wasn't feeling, I wasn't stealing, all I did was run
I tried to find all of the facts to all the meanings, and find my path my way

I wanna ride I wanna drive I try
I wanna ride I wanna drive I'm shy

I wanna ride I wanna drive I try.
I want to be easy all the time spent spending
Our lives are ending
I wanna fly I wanna drive I'm shy.
I see me out the corner of my mind descending
My eyes are bending
I hand off cliffs for fun,
I'm not the only one I see you

Stand in line, ride the world on a wave tonight
Leave behind all you like, take a trip to the skyline

I took the shine off all the joy I put my hands on Squeezed out the fun of life and then I turned to stone
I turned my back on all the people and the phantoms
I found myself alive, I want to feel alone

I wanna ride I wanna drive I try
I wanna ride I wanna drive I'm shy

I wanna ride I wanna drive I try.
I want to be easy all the time spent spending
Our lives are ending
I wanna fly I wanna drive I'm shy.
I see me out the corner of my mind descending
My eyes are bending
I hand off cliffs for fun,
I'm not the only one I see you

I hang off cliffs for fun,
I'm not the only one.
When all my days are done,
I'll still be holding on
I see you
